Request for sending funds for Covid-19 medical treatment of my husband Shri Anal Kumar Paul

Respected Sir,

I would like to draw to your kind attention that I have fallen in acute financial crisis to meet the further medical expenditure of the hospital. The money had with me and collected from nearest ones had already been deposited with the hospital.

It is very much difficult for me to have funds now. Therefore, I earnestly request with folded hands to immediately send funds to ensure the safety and security for treatment of my husband in the hospital.

I had already sent the Estimate from the Samford Hospital, Kokar Chowk, Ranchi a few days back to you over the email address. Still he is in critical condition in the hospital.

Sir, the matter may please be looked into personally on priority basis considering the need of the critical hour of my beloved husband.

I furnish hereunder the bank account details of my husband for doing the needful at your end.
